

Psychologist Job Description

This proactive role involves organising regular operations for Sunflowers Kids Club during our opening hours on Saturdays and planning and administrative support of our services during the working week.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Psychologist to work for Sunflowers Kids Club. You will be working in a very positive, friendly, and supportive organisation that delivers educational activities, emotional well-being and integration support for Ukrainian refugee children and their families.

Hours: up to 4 hours a week

Salary: from £20 per hour

During the opening hours Administrator's responsibilities include greeting attendees of our Club, making sure they know what they are doing, carry out the register, manage the front of the house, and keeping everyone safe.

Job Role:

- Delivering individual consultations for Ukrainian attendees who would request psychological support
- Delivering group topical sessions for Ukrainian adults to support and enhance their mental and emotional well-being
- Being proactive and effective in implementing wholistic psychological support with the inclusion of supportive team and organisational environment
- Supporting the provision of psychology services in our Club, in collaboration with our team of psychologists and other staff
- Nurturing friendly relationships with attendees and the team.

Are you...?

- ✓ Holding in Psychology or its equivalent from another country?
- ✓ Speaking Ukrainian?
- ✓ Having an eligibility to live and work in the UK?
- ✓ Having an experience of working as a practical psychologist? This is desirable, though not essential?
- ✓ Having an experience of supporting vulnerable people?

For this post, the person will need to have the following skills:

- ✓ Excellent communication skills
- ✓ Excellent interpersonal skills
- ✓ Effective problem solving skills
- ✓ Punctuality
- ✓ Critical thinking skills
- ✓ Teamwork and collaboration skills
- ✓ Adaptability skills
- ✓ Work ethic

Benefits on offer:

Support with full recruitment process and advice
DBS service certificates explained and paid for
Access to training opportunities
A positive and friendly staff culture

We look forward to welcoming a professional with a genuine passion for supporting and empowering vulnerable adults and children with a holistic psychological support. The support that is built on a professional relationship of trust in a non-judgmental manner with every client as a basis for developing and enabling therapeutic relationships.